Pandit Vadiraja Acharya of Jamkhandy

Memorial No. 330/1242 Dated 21st September 1908 addressed to H. H. the Maharaja

The memorialist represents that he is on his way to Sri Tirupati where he intends reciting Bhagavata and Githa for the benefit of the public from Ashtami for one month. He prays for daily rations from the Tirupati chattram sufficient to maintain himself and his eight followers. He has filed with his memorial copies of Testimonials in proof of high educational attainments in Sanskrit

Submitted for orders.

File No. of Muzrai Secretariat.

During the period, the Chairman itself will be at the disposal of the Mahant who feeds a large number of Brahmins assembling on the occasion of the Kalasa Prathishte ceremonies. May the petr be informed that at the time he proposes to be in Tirupati the Chairman will not be available for reasons stated above?

The applicant asks for exemptions; and this I am told has been prohibited. ~~to adopt has been prohibited~~ The applicant is said to be a learned Vaishnava Brahmin of orthodox principles who does not like cooked rice at Chowltry. It is true that is a Special Ceremony for which exemptions for two days, i.e. 40 days of rice are conditions.

I have great pleasure in endorsing the opinion of my friend The Honble Mr. M.M.Malaviya on the Prarthana Shataka by Pandit Vadirajacharya who deserves every encouragement.

I have been delighted to read the smooth and elagant verses of this Prarthana Shataka composed by Pandit Vadirajacharya of Jamkhandi They show a good command over the Sanskrit language and a capacity to follow classical devotion displayed in the verses is touching.
